

The College is committed to a work environment free from harassment. In conjunction with this commitment, the College expressly prohibits any harassment of its employees by anyone, including any supervisor, co-worker or any third party.