

In order to encourage the attendance and participation at Carl Sandburg College of students with exceptional talent, the Board authorizes the establishment of talent grants which will consist of the waiving of normal tuition, and/or student activity fees, and/or lab fees.