

The Board charges the administration with the responsibility of establishing a program to assess the oral proficiency in the English language of all persons providing classroom instruction and to ensure that each person possesses oral proficiency in the English language before providing classroom instruction to students.