

REGULATION on Faculty Participation in Decision-Making

Faculty participation in the decision-making process shall occur primarily through the standing committees, Faculty Council, and Faculty Assembly. The Faculty Assembly and its committees shall be in an advisory only relationship to the administration. The administration shall seek the advice of the full-time faculty at Carl Sandburg College on educational matters as specified in Policy #1.2 through the standing committees and ad hoc task forces of the Faculty Assembly. The Faculty Assembly shall be consulted on any changes in regulations, which would affect the participatory decision-making structure. The Faculty Assembly will also be entitled to have one of its members attend and participate in the regular and special meetings of the Carl Sandburg College Board of Trustees exclusive of executive sessions.

Section IMembership

All contractual faculty shall be members of the Assembly. Administrative and professional staff of the College are not members of the Faculty Assembly. Administrative and professional staff are ex officio members of all standing committees and ad hoc task forces. The Faculty Assembly shall report to the Vice President of Academic Services. The various Assembly committees shall report to the appropriate administrator through Faculty Assembly as depicted in the organizational chart.

Section IIOfficers/Faculty Council

1. At the final Faculty Assembly meeting of each year, the Faculty Assembly shall elect a chairperson elect and either two or three new members to the Faculty Council. These officers shall comprise the Faculty Council of the Faculty Assembly and shall assume their duties at the conclusion of each academic year.
 1. On the odd year, two representatives will be elected.
 2. On the even year, three representatives will be elected.
 3. The new Faculty Council at its first meeting will select a representative to the Illinois Community College Faculty Association.
2. The Chairperson shall preside at and call the Faculty Assembly meetings, chair meetings of the Faculty Council, and represent the Faculty Assembly as needed.

3. The Chairperson-Elect shall preside at Faculty Assembly meetings in the absence of the chairperson, attend Board of Trustees meetings as the assigned representative of the Faculty Assembly, and assume other duties as directed by the chairperson. If for any reason the chairperson-elect cannot serve as the faculty representative to the Board, the Faculty Council may appoint one of its members to temporarily fill the position.
4. The secretary to the Faculty Assembly (the Executive Assistant to the Vice President of Academic Services) shall keep a file of all minutes of Faculty Assembly meetings and shall distribute minutes of the Faculty Assembly meetings to all members of the faculty and professional staff of Carl Sandburg College.
5. The Faculty Council shall prepare agendas and call meetings of the Faculty Assembly. The Faculty Council shall act as liaison to the administration in the absence of Faculty Assembly meetings.
6. A nominating committee consisting of the current chairperson and two appointed Faculty Council members shall meet in March of each year to develop a slate of nominees for the upcoming year.
7. The Vice President of Academic Services shall also have the prerogative of calling Faculty Assembly meetings and may add items to the agenda at regularly called meetings.

Section III

Structure

The faculty participatory decision-making structure shall be comprised of the Faculty Council, six standing committees, six institutional committees, ad hoc task forces as administratively requested, and the Faculty Assembly.

The six standing committees include Curriculum, Faculty Development, Student Services, Tenure Commission, Faculty Assessment and Growth, and Student Assessment. The six institutional committees include Enrollment Management, Risk Management, College Welfare/Wellness, Carthage/Bushnell Advisory Committee, Instructional Technology, and Advisory Committee on Sexual Harassment.
